CARD OF THANKS.

I wish through the NEWS to express my gratitude to the many friends who so freely rendered help, and the kind words spoken will be like an oasis in the desert in my memory, while I am passing through the vale of sorrow on account of the sickness and death of my dear wife. May the Lord bless you all. M. G. BERRY.

SEEMS TO BE BAD MAN.

It is reported that Fred Muncy, who is now under indictment for highway robbery, held up and robbed Marshall Webb, of Pilgrim in this county last week. Muncy was out on bond. Some time ago he ran away from Inez; his bond given on a previous occasion was forfeited. J. C. Fletcher and J. H. Muncy were his bondsmen at this time and Fletcher went to Virginia to bring him back. He was given bond again and some six men from Pilgrim were on the bond. He took about fifty dollars in money from Webb. He has not been recaptured as yet.—Martin County Advertiser.

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

DR. CHARLES FOX ANDERSON
WRITES FROM NEW ORLEANS

I am very happy to learn that my esteemed friend, Rev. W. J. Simpson, D. D., of Lexington, has accepted the call to become my successor as pastor of the First Baptist Church. Dr. Simpson ranks high in the Baptist Brotherhood of Kentucky, not only for his pulpit ability but as an untiring worker. He has certainly brought things here at the Memorial Baptist Church in Lexington of which he has been pastor for nearly four years. Dr. Simpson received his preliminary education at a military school, then he graduated from Center College at Danville, and later from the Moody Bible Institute at Chicago.

Not the Baptist people alone, but the entire city of Louisa is indeed fortunate in having as a citizen this most excellent gentleman, whose culture and consecration will add much to the civic as well as the religious life of lovely Louisa.

If "distance lends enchantment to the view" then I appreciate the beautiful "Queen of the Big Sandy" even more in this far-away city than I did when I was one of her humble citizens. God bless Louisa; may she flourish like the palm tree and grow like a cedar in Lebanon.

M. E. CHURCH.

Sunday School Class.

Mrs. Ida Cummings desires the members of her Sunday school class to meet at the home of Miss Marie Hale on Friday evening, October 21, at 7 o'clock.

Reception at M. E. Church

A good sized crowd attended the reception held at the M. E. Church on Tuesday evening. The opening address was made by Mr. R. C. McClure. Songs and recitations by the children were enjoyed and the music was fine, among the numbers being a quartet by O. C. Atkins, J. M. Cain, T. O'Neal and F. L. Hagerman.

The church was beautifully decorated with potted plants and flowers. Refreshments, cake ice cream and coffee were served at the parsonage. The occasion was enjoyed by all who attended.

M. E. CHURCH SOUTH.

So far during the new conference year our church has been doing well. The Sunday school is moving along nicely with a good attendance. The Sunday school has a corps of good teachers for both young and old. The church services both morning and night are well attended. This is Rev. Bell's third year and he is anxious that this year be made the best of his pastorate here. He is doing some excellent preaching at each of the services and his sermons are worth listening to and you will go miles before you can hear a better sermon than Bro. Bell preaches. We have a splendid church building, comfortable pews, a good choir and with the earnest co-operation of the membership of the church
